

Chettinad

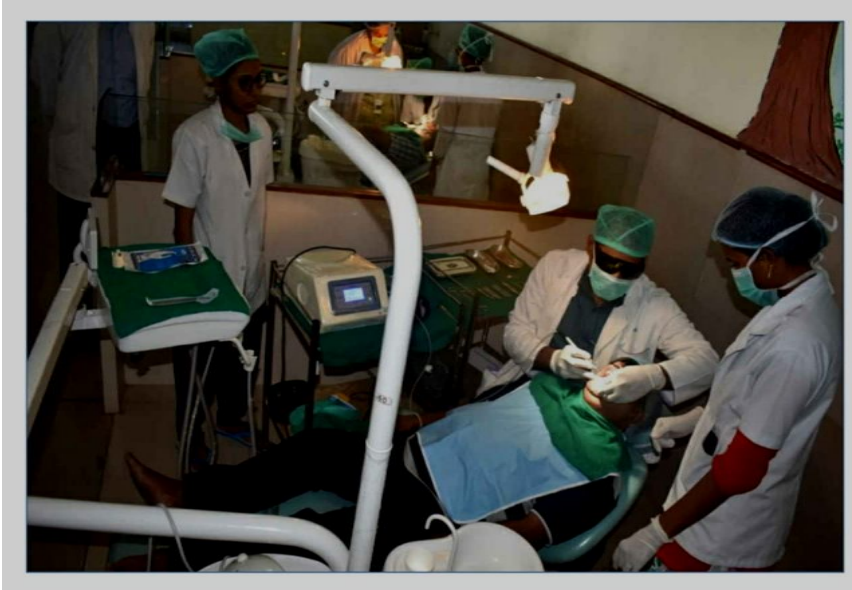

Dental College & Research Institute

DEPARTMENT OF PERIODONTICS

DEPARTMENT PHOTOS

Periodontology is the branch of dentistry which deals with the study of the normal structures of periodontium that is, the tissues and bone immediately surrounding the teeth, their functions in health and disease. Post graduate degree course was initiated in the year 2017

The department deals with clinical treatment options including routine oral prophylaxis (Scaling), Root planning, Flap surgery, Recession coverage procedures, LASER surgical procedures and Dental implant placement.

The department boasts of excellent infrastructure including hi-tech dental chairs, surgical instruments, and advanced equipments including soft tissue LASER, implant surgical kits, physio dispenser, minor surgical theatres, and seminar halls with projectors.

The teaching learning processes which are implemented in the department includes the following

1. One to one teaching
2. OSCE
3. Discussions
4. Clinical demonstrations
5. Pre-clinical teaching like scaling, suturing and incision designs on simulators and models
6. LMS based teaching
7. Seminars and Journal clubs